

Why Choose Laura Tinghitella?

As a prior local business owner, talented artist and long-time resident of Jacksonville Oregon, Laura offers clients a unique insight into the vibrant aesthetic values of the beautiful Southern Oregon region. Using her prior business experience and her meticulous attention to detail, she offers sellers vital help in preparing and staging their homes. Her experience in graphic and web design; and her knowledge of online advertising and marketing is another vital asset Laura provides when listing a property to sell.

Additionally, Laura is an especially competent resource when it comes to finding that perfect place for her buyers. As a great listener and communicator, she works hard to meet her clients' desires and needs. Her warm nature and consideration for others makes her a pleasure to work with whether you are selling a property or seeking a new one.
